

Wachusett Reservoir Art Path

Saturday, March 14, 2015

10 am to 3 pm

A self-guided tour of artists, shops, and museums of the towns surrounding the Wachusett Reservoir

The Wachusett Reservoir Art Path (WRAP) is an opportunity to meet local artists, visit shops & cafes, and enjoy art museums of the Wachusett Reservoir towns. From pottery to pastels, woodwork & metal sculpture, African art, Russian icons, watercolors & acrylics, fashion accessories, and antiques, WRAP has something for every art lover. And, after a day of touring, stop at one of the cafes or restaurants of WRAP for a delicious meal.

Participants include:

West Boylston

Aimee Klee Jewelry-Handmade Jewelry
The Weaving Shed-Fiber Arts Artist and Instructor
Artful Treasure-Vintage Finds & Artisan Designs
Kevin Nee -Studio 109-Award-winning wood creations
RJ Arts Pottery - Becky O'Brien creates ceramic artworks

The Mill at 185 Restaurant -

Hosting the following Artists:

Mark Waitkus - Watercolors of iconic New England
Betsy White - Portrait Artist
Dick Taylor - Photography

Clinton

Sunrise Boutique-Eclectic Mix of Gifts & Handmade Items
Gallery of African Art-Traditional African Art & Music
Museum of Russian Icons- Unique collection of Fine Art
Carry Crane - Landscape and conceptual artist
Cheryl Clinton - Paintings and mixed media artwork.

Sterling

Stephen Koleshis Studio-Found Object Sculptures

Find your way to these locations with our map at: <http://goo.gl/maps/jMJB9>

Scan the code with your smart phone to quickly access the map

West Boylston Arts Foundation www.wbaf.org
Email: wbartsfoundation@gmail.com or wbaf@wbaf.org or find us on Facebook